

Writing Topics and Prompts About Social Media

- The use of social media has meant the increase of prosecution of criminals. Find out why and write a report about it.
- Write a persuasive letter to a close relative asking them to join your favorite social media application.
- List as many pros and cons as you can possibly think of about for the use of social media
- It's been said that social media leads to a better quality of life. Write an opinion article about this statement.
- Write an opinion article on the following statement: Students have lower grades because they're spending too much time on social media.
- Write a descriptive article on why social media has been blamed for less productive workers. Use evidence and your own personal opinions.
- Write about the pros and cons for businesses using social media.
- Write about how social media can be effective to help out when there are natural disasters.
- Write about the dangers of cyber bullying.
- Write about the dangers of sharing passwords.
- Make a list of 15 rules for the appropriate use of social media apps.
- Write an opinion article on this statement: Are social media sites addictive?
- Debate whether or not social media can be used effectively for homework.
- Write an opinion article on whether your classroom should or shouldn't use social media.
- Make a list of all of the advantages of using social networking.
- Make a list of all of the disadvantages of using social networking.
- Write an opinion article about why you think social media sites do so well.